Welcome - Maioha

From the Executive Leadership Team (ELT)

Kia ora

We are so pleased you have joined the BTI learning community and we sincerely hope that this will be a very special time in your life.

Those of you who have enrolled in the School of Teacher Education, we know that the first 1,000 days in the lives of our tamariki are the most important. You have enrolled because you have a big heart for shaping children's minds, a dream for getting the best out of young learners, a commitment to being gracious, secure and teachable, an awareness of Jesus as the Master Teacher. In 2021, all our teacher education courses have been rewritten to best meet the needs of today's learners but they will remain unapologetically Christ-centred. You are shaping the next generation of New Zealanders.

For those of you who have enrolled in the School of Social Practice, in a world still reeling from Covid-19, we know that there will be increased demand for those who can journey with others and advocate for them. You are called to love mercy, walk humbly and seek justice. You will dive deep into your own experiences of life, be equipped with tools and frameworks to help others, engage biculturally, and have significant hands-on experience to prepare you for your profession.

If you have enrolled in the Level 4 NZ Certificate in Study and Employment Pathways, this programme will give you the practical tools you need to be best equipped for study. This back-to-basics, six-month course will give you confidence, teach you skills, and develop your study habits so you can successfully continue in your academic and professional pathway.

And finally, those in our post graduate programme (Master of Professional Practice and Leadership), you have enrolled because you want to better integrate your faith and work in your profession and as a leader in your industry. You will learn from our top research-active staff, engage with other students across Aotearoa New Zealand, have your eyes opened to new and exciting ways to think about your values and how they inform your professional practice. For those of you in our Postgraduate Certificate in Responding to Trauma programme, you are responding to the expressed need in our communities for more understanding and training in how to support people who have experienced trauma in its many forms.

For over 20 years, BTI has been at the cutting edge of distance education. As a Category 1 provider, at the same level as universities, we remain at the top of our game. You can be assured of the highest quality of education, the best student experience, with top educators who have real-world practical experience in their professions. Coming to BTI to study is one of the best decisions you will ever make. We look forward to welcoming you to the BTI whānau.

Who we are - Tēnei Mātou

BTI is a charitable company owned by the Christian Education Trust. The CET was established in 1986 with the vision of extending God's Kingdom by providing Christ-centred education for students of all age groups. As a Charitable trust, all profits are invested straight back into education.

OUR MISSION

To provide Christ-centred, biblically informed, professional preparation, development and research, for influential service.

OUR ETHOS

We believe that people teach, counsel and relate out of who they are. Because of that, we are interested in the growth of men and women, not only towards a professional goal, but towards reaching their God-given potential. Relationships are central to life at BTI as we work and grow together.

OUR HEART

We support people to grow holistically. Academically, we want to stretch students towards excellence so they are able to translate knowledge and skills into professional practice. Alongside this, we want to develop practitioners who are teachable, secure and gracious. We anticipate that patterns established at BTI such as work habits, relationships and spiritual perspectives will grow and develop in depth and richness over the years.

OUR PURPOSE

We offer a wide range of contexts, activities, ideas and methods in our courses so that this growth may take place. We want to help form professionals who are sought after for their personal and professional standing.

OUR VALUES

In terms of life and work, we value:

- A Biblical Christian Worldview as formational
- Personal and professional enquiry and integration
- A strengths-based learning and missional community
- Treaty-based relationships within Aotearoa New Zealand

Student-Centred Learning

At BTI, we believe in the importance of student-centred learning which is both pedagogical and practical. It is a shift from the activity of teaching in the form of teachers' structuring and presentation of knowledge, to the process of learning, with a focus on learners' characteristics, experiences and efforts to make sense of what they encounter in educational settings (Barr & Tagg 1995).

Students need skills to continually adapt by acquiring new information and learning independent of instruction. Students are to be critical thinkers, problem-solvers and lifelong learners. In addition, they must be adept at communication, teamwork and self-assessment. BTI supports students in developing the skills to succeed in any environment.

Student Wellbeing Plan

BTI is dedicated to creating an environment that is student centred and addresses the economic, social and wellbeing goals, and the development aspirations of diverse learner groups (eg, Māori, Pasifika, international students, students with disabilities and other learner groups). We focus on listening to our students and making changes based on their feedback to adapt our teaching, learning and support services to empower students at different ages and stages. BTI has made changes that enhance student voice and participation in student governance and management decision-making.

As part of our commitment to building a student-centred educational experience for our students, BTI has worked hard to strengthen existing, and develop new, connections and authentic partnerships with students, whānau and diverse learner groups.

Code of Practice for Tertiary Students

The Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners Code of Practice 2021 (the Code) supports the wellbeing of tertiary and international learners enrolled with New Zealand education providers. It sets out the roles and responsibilities that tertiary education providers must meet for the wellbeing and safety of their learners.

Under the Code, BTI's responsibilities include helping you to be:

- safe, physically, and mentally
- respected and accepted for who you are
- supported in your learning and wellbeing
- connected with your social and cultural networks and
- able to have your say in decisions about services.

Read the Code: Tertiary and International Learners Code of Practice \(PDF, 925KB\)

More information about the Code \(NZQA website\)

Did you know that wellbeing and safety supports your learning?

The Code of Pastoral Care has been put together to make sure you have the best possible support system.

This means that while you're learning, you should be:

- safe – physically and mentally
- respected for who you are
- supported in your learning and wellbeing
- connected with your social and cultural networks and
- able to have your say in decisions about services.

If you want to find out more, or if something isn't working for you, talk to your learning provider first or if you need to, you can talk to NZQA.

Student Services Fees (SSF)

The Ministry of Education and the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) mandates that we publish information relating to how BTI utilises the Student Levy (Student Services Fee).

The Student Council is the consultation forum for the levy and is made up of class reps and staff representative. Decisions about the student levy are to be made jointly with BTI to determine the maximum fee that students will pay and the types of services that will be delivered within the permitted categories set by TEC. Students can talk directly with their class reps to make their views known on the levy.

The Student Levy is set at $720.600(GST inclusive) for each full-time onsite student in 2024. This can be broken down to $6.00 per credit of enrolled courses. Offsite students pay a lesser amount.

Student Services Levy	Amount
Onsite students	$6.00/ credit
Offsite students	$4.51/credit

The Minister determines what categories of student services the SSF can fund. To view the most recent BTI Student Services Fees income and expenditure, please click here:

Getting enough credits for your qualification

Please ensure that you check this - it's your responsibility to check. You will need to check that you will have the right number of credits needed for a degree, diploma or graduate diploma. Some quick calculations may save problems later!

Plagiarism

In academic and professional presentations, plagiarism is considered to be a serious ethical offence. It offends such Christian principles as honesty, integrity and respect for others. Plagiarism occurs when another person's published or unpublished work is used as if it were one's own. It involves (without clear acknowledgment) direct copying, quoting, paraphrasing of material or downloading from the internet, another person's ideas. Plagiarism includes copying from another student's assignments.

All assignment work at BTI needs to be your own work and you will be required to sign an assignment cover sheet certifying that the submitted work is your own. Each semester we randomly check assignments from each year group and programme for copying and pasting (plagiarism). Please see policy SA.19 Plagiarism for details on the seriousness of plagiarism and the consequences for breaching it.

Policies

There is a BTI policy for many aspects of staff and student life. To view some of the key student policies: Student Policies

Programme Regulations

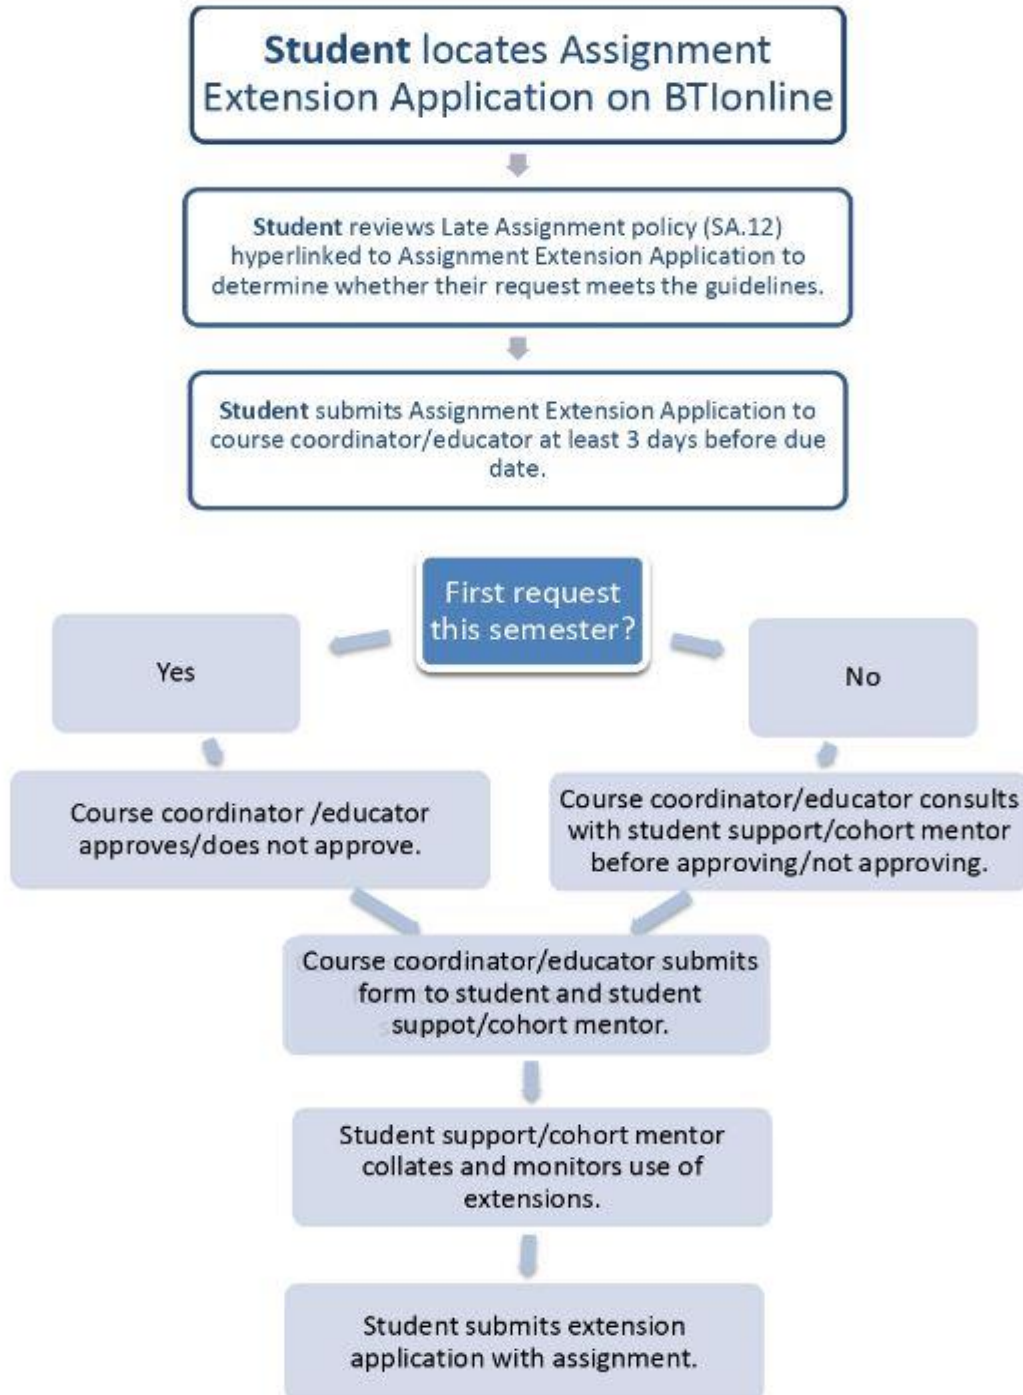

Every programme has a set of regulations that clarify entry, content and completion of the qualifications. The complete Programme Regulations can be accessed on BTI Online.

These required texts need to be purchased BEFORE the start of the semester in which they will be needed. The link for Books a Plenty in Tauranga can be found on BTI Online to purchase these texts. Check which courses are being taken in the coming semester and purchase the texts for these. Student Concerns & Complaints

If students have a concern or complaint about an individual student/staff/ educator / BTI administration, in the first instance, students are encouraged to resolve the issue at the level it occurred with the person concerned. If not resolved, direct it to your Cohort Mentor/Programme Lead, then to the Head of School. If the issue is still not resolved, or if you are not satisfied with the outcome you can make a formal complaint to the Executive Leadership Team (ELT). See complaints flowchart in the next page.

Please thoroughly read and understand this policy before submitting your concern or complaint.

Student Concerns and Complaints \(SG.08\)

External Complaints

Please raise any concerns or make a formal complaint to BTI first before engaging with external complaints processes.

Study Complaints

If you are an international student or a domestic tertiary learner and you have an unresolved complaint (financial or contractual dispute) about a New Zealand education provider, you can contact Study Complaints.

Making a formal complaint to NZQA

NZQA's complaint process is for learners who want to escalate a complaint about a possible breach of NZQA regulations that affected their experience studying at an education provider.

NZQA is not a dispute resolution service and generally cannot help you get a refund or a specific solution.

There is an online form on the NZQA website if you would like to get advice about your concerns about an education provider.

Tips for making a complaint

Make your complaint as soon as you can. It is hard for NZQA to look at a complaint if it happened more than a year ago.

- what process you went through and want to complaint about
- why you think it is unfair
- what the education provider has said about your complaint.

You need to show:

- Documents about your complaint e.g. letter and emails to/from your provider
- Anything else you think NZQA needs to see about your complaint, e.g. advertising material, your enrolment contract.

Tell NZQA what you would like to happen to fix your complaint.

To make a formal complaint to NZQA:

- i. Download the formal complaints form and put in all the details of your complaint.
Make sure you give contact details for everyone who is covered in the complaint.
- ii. Collect evidence for your complaint. Include evidence that will support your complaint and let NZQA fully investigate it.
- iii. Send the form and your evidence to NZQA. You can email it all to: risk@nzqa.govt.nz or post it all to:
Risk Management, NZQA
PO Box 160
Wellington, 6140

For more information, go to the NZQA website at:

<https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz/about-us/contact-us/complaint/education-provider/>

Mental health

The World Health Organization (2014) defines mental health as “...a state of well-being in which every individual realizes his or her own potential, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to her or his community.” Like physical health, we can all benefit from looking after our mental health.

Mental wellbeing (also known as ‘positive mental health’ and ‘flourishing’)

Mental wellbeing is the ability to cope with the day-to-day stresses of life, work productively, interact positively with others and realise our own potential. Mental wellbeing is more than the absence of mental illness and it is more than feeling happy.

Poor mental health

Poor mental health is a state of low mental wellbeing where you are unable to realise your own potential, cope with the day-to-day pressures of life, work productively or contribute to a community.

Mental health problems

We all have times when we struggle with our mental health, but mental health problems develop when these difficult experiences or feelings go on for a long time and affect our ability to enjoy and live our lives in the way we want to. You might receive a specific diagnosis from your doctor, or just feel more generally that you are experiencing poor mental health.

Meaningful conversations about mental health and wellbeing don't have to be hard conversations. Being able to talk about our mental health, including our thoughts and feelings, is a sign of connection and a good attitude towards health.

The Five Ways to Wellbeing are – Connect, Keep Learning, Be Active, Give, and Take Notice. Why the Five Ways work:

- Connect: Strengthening relationships with others and feeling close to and valued by others is critical to boosting wellbeing. See your pastor or BTI pastoral care support staff if you would like to talk to someone or need prayer.
- Keep Learning: Being curious and seeking out new experiences in life more generally positively stimulates the brain.
- Be Active: Being physically active improves physical health and can improve mood and wellbeing and decrease stress, depression and anxiety.
- Give: Carrying out acts of kindness, whether small or large, can increase happiness, life satisfaction and general sense of wellbeing.
- Take Notice: Paying more attention to the present moment, to thoughts and feelings and to the world around, boosts our wellbeing.

The Five Ways in action:

- Connect with the people around you. With family, friends, colleagues, church members and neighbours.
- Keep Learning. Try something new. Rediscover an old interest. Take on a new responsibility.
- Be Active. Go for a walk or run. Step outside. Garden. Play a game.
- Give. Do something nice for a friend. Thank someone. Volunteer your time.
- Take Notice. Remark on the unusual. Notice the changing seasons. Savour the moment.

Tikanga Māori - Māori Culture

We here at BTI acknowledge that we are still on our journey of discovery in terms of understanding and of having a heart of sincerity in applying cultural values and perspectives that can be inter-woven into our underlying Christian philosophy and vision. We accept and endorse that Ngati Kahu as tangata whenua have a spiritual and emotional relationship to the land on which the campus is sited. We are committed to developing our relationship with each other. We are open and committed to embracing all cultural and ethnic representations on campus.

Te Kohao - Cultural Room

Room 4301

Te Kohao - The Eye (of the needle)

Room 4301 is our Cultural Room - Te Kohao which means "the eye of the needle".

The eye of the needle is a small door fixed in a gate of the city wall and opened after dark. To pass through, the camel must be unloaded. Hence the difficulty of the rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven - he must be unloaded first. Likewise, in order to get the very best from our time at BTI we all need to unload things we carry that will impede our reaching and realising our full potential.

Io Matua Kore - God the Parentless One

Io Matua Kore is the name of the mural that is displayed on the wall of Te Kohao. The theme is based on the central figure Io Matua Kore, Supreme Creator, Author of Life and eternal God who is the great I Am.

From Him emanates all life. His arms extend from creation through to eternity. He weaves himself through the ages, his love mercy and grace available to all mankind. All can receive his unconditional love at the cross through His Son, Jesus Christ.

The left side of the mural represents BTI. The dove and His infallible Word two significant symbols embedded within the BTI DNA.

The right side represents the Tangata Whenua of Tauranga Moana - Ngati Ranginui, Ngai Te Rangi and Ngati Pukenga.

Scholarships

At BTI we are committed to your success. While we do not offer any BTI exclusive scholarships, one of the ways in which we contribute to this commitment is by partnering with other third-party stakeholders to accept scholarships offered. We appreciate the diversity of student groups and where possible, we work with others and accept funding for scholarships from students from all backgrounds. Scholarships may offer support for fees or accommodation or may be paid directly to the student.

Online Workload Management

The online Orientation course, is compulsory. It will give you a chance to practice the activities you will need to be able to participate in during the online component of your BTI courses.

- Set aside a short time each day (eg 30 minutes) to do the online tasks for each course you are studying — a little and often is better than large blocks of time less frequently. This time is in addition to the time you will need to spend reading articles and doing assessment tasks.

- Manage the time you spend online— if you are a distance student your online course should take no more (or less) of your time than a similar face-to-face one, timetable your online time into your diary and set that time aside just as if you were attending a lecture or tutorial.

- Ask for help if you don't know how to do something or understand what is required—there is a BTIonline helpdesk email address on the home page of your BTIonline programme or for items relating specifically to your course contact your course lecturer.

- Edit your profile to include a picture of yourself (if there isn't one there already) as this helps the other students and lecturers know who you are and gives a more personal touch to your contributions to the course.

- Don't leave assessment tasks to the last minute—internet technology is not always reliable. So if you need to up load an assignment onto BTI Online or do a discussion forum posting by a certain due date and time, and you leave it till 10 minutes before the deadline expires, you may find the website is down or your Internet connection isn't working which will cause panic.

- Always have a backup — if discussion postings are part of your assessment tasks, it pays to write them in a word processor first and then copy and paste them into the BTI Online discussion edit box. That way if the posting is lost (e.g. your internet connection disconnects during the editing process) you still have the original work and can copy and paste it again, rather than having to redo it completely!

Make a backup digital copy of large assignments as well.

HOW WE CAN HELP

Trying to find relevant information for your study and assignments can be like trying to find your way through a maze of seemingly dead ends! We help by providing:

- resources that have been bought specifically to support BTI courses. These include books, print journals, and online resources that Google won't find
- staff who can help you find your way through the maze
- small group workshops on topics you need help with
- a range of 'how to' guides - see the Library website for help on topics such as search strategies, using the library catalogue, using journal databases, renewing books etc.
- a postal service for out-of-town distance students
- a place to study

STRESS BUSTERS

You can help us, and reduce your own stress, by:

- not leaving things until the last minute – we are more likely to be able to help if you allow sufficient time
- being as specific as possible with requests, with as much accurate detail as possible
- returning or renewing your books on time
- letting us know if your contact details change

BTI LIBRARY ONLINE

You can access the library website from BTI Online

"Welcome" box or click on the link below:

<http://bethlehem.ac.nz.libguides.com>

Click on the various tabs to find links to the library catalogue, online journals, useful websites for your subject, general reference sources, and "How to" guides on various topics.

If you can't find the answers you need, don't forget your librarians are here to help – just send an email or ring the library, and we'll do our best to answer your questions.

Our usual method of communication to you is by email; therefore it is vital that if you change your email address, please let the Librarian know.

LIBERTY

Liberty is our library management system. Essentially it is a library catalogue where you can look up resources contained in the BTI library. When you log in to Liberty you can view or renew items you currently have on loan and reserve items that are on loan to other people.

BORROWING ITEMS FROM THE LIBRARY

Most items can be borrowed, except reference material and journals, which are for use in the library only. Onsite students or distance students may borrow up to 15 items, and the loan period is 2 weeks. We will post items to distance students who are not able to visit the library in person. You may have up to 10 items on loan at any one time, and items are issued for 3 weeks, which includes postage time. BTI pays both for the outgoing postage and for returning items.

Renewing items

You may renew items by logging into Liberty as yourself. Details on how to log in are available on the library web page.

Reserving items

If an item you require is on loan to another user, you can reserve it by emailing the library or logging into Liberty as yourself.

Short-term loans

Some items that are in high demand may be placed on temporary short-term loan. These are likely to be copies of set texts, or on your Required Reading list. They cannot be reserved or renewed.

Fines

If your books are returned late, there will be a charge of 50 cents per day per book, to a maximum of $10 per book. Once a maximum of $15 is reached, no further books will be issued until the fines are paid. However, there is a 2-day grace period so if your books are returned or renewed within 2 days of the due date, no fines will be charged. Short-term loans are charged at the rate of $3 per item per day, with no grace period.

Lost books

If no response from you has been received after 3 overdue reminders, we will assume an item is lost, and you will be sent an account for the cost of replacement. If you find a lost item and return it within 6 months of payment, you will receive a refund of the amount paid minus $5 administration fee.

If you ignore reminders about outstanding fines, or lost books, your access to online courses may be blocked, and you will not receive your end-of-semester grades.

A friendly reminder.....

No food or drink in the Library please.

Please turn mobile phones off while inside and keep noise to a minimum so that others are not disrupted.

Bethlehem Institute Student Association

What is BISA?

BISA is the student association of BTI. The purpose of BISA is to ensure that the experience of being a student at BTI is a positive, fun and rewarding one.

It is an association run by students, for students and everyone can get involved. Class reps from each year group from each programme will be nominated during February/March intensives. These class reps will make up the Student Council who will then nominate the BISA Executive Committee comprising of President, Vice-President and Secretary and facilitated by the Student Engagement Coordinator.

Class reps are student volunteers who represent the interests of students to the staff. They provide an important link between students and staff in a class; providing feedback on the courses and any concerns that students raise.

To know who your class rep is: Student Council

Some of the things BISA does:

- organize social events and activities to bring students together across all courses and years and develop a sense of student community
- represent students to be their voice at all levels and provide services to improve the quality of student life at BTI

All BTI students become members of BISA as soon as they enrol.

If you have any ideas, concerns or need help, do contact your class rep.

If you are unsure of who to go to, and if you have any questions about BISA or to find out who your class rep is, contact our Student Engagement Coordinator, Rhena Kulasingham at r.kulasingham@bti.ac.nz or 07-5622952

Accommodation

BTI does not offer any student accommodation, so if you are not a local and you are planning to move to Tauranga to study – or you require temporary accommodation for Intensives – below is a list of where you might be able to find accommodation:

The BTI accommodation list

From time to time we have people phone us to say they have private rental accommodation available so we do maintain a list and can be accessed on BTIonline at <https://www.btionline.ac.nz/mod/forum/view.php?id=9482>

BISA accommodation forum

Check out the BISA accommodation forum on BTI online. Students can communicate on this forum if they require accommodation or if they have accommodation they would like to offer other students.

Trade Me

There are usually a number of local flat shares and houses available for private renting through this website. See www.trademe.co.nz

Christian Accommodation New Zealand

This website advertises accommodation for those would like to rent from/flat with other Christians. See www.canz.co.nz

The Hub

The Hub on campus is a great way to meet other students who may also be looking for accommodation or you may like to put a notice up.

Most students who come onsite for intensives end up staying with friends while they are here, or meet other students during the course of their study and then stay with them. However, if neither of those options are suitable, here are just some of the options available locally.

Accommodation Te Puna offers chalets, cabins and backpacker accommodation as well as powered sites for caravans.

Bell Lodge Motel & Backpackers Hostel offers a variety of accommodation options including backpacker hostels, chalets and motel units.

Bethlehem Motor Inn - offers motel units located very close to BTI.

Just the Ducks Nuts offers dorms and single rooms with a bus stop outside that takes you to BTI. Offers membership rates to BTI students – just tell them you are studying at BTI for a discount.

Loft 109 offers budget backpacker accommodation in the city centre with daily or weekly rates for dorms or double rooms. Also offers 'Female Only' dorms.

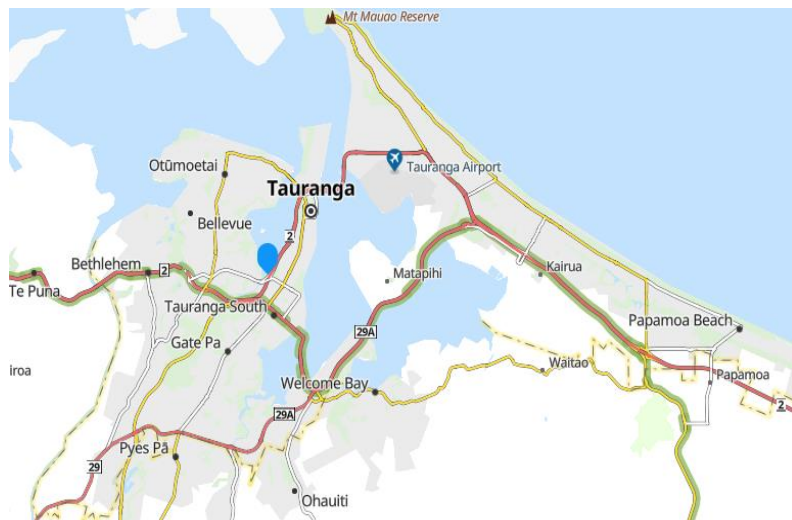

Note: The links provided on this page are intended to provide general information to students. BTI does not represent or endorse any accommodation options nor is responsible for accommodation.

Sport, Recreation and Cultural Services

BTI has a range of events and activities, including sports days, cultural days, overnight Marae stays, and induction activities to engage our diverse student community.

Hints for reading the Bible

Christians feed on scripture. Holy Scripture nurtures the holy community as food nurtures the human body. Christians don't simply learn or study or use Scripture; we assimilate it, take it into our LIVES in such a way that it gets metabolized into acts of LOVE, cups of cold water, missions into all the world, healing and EVANGELISM and justices in Jesus' name, hands raised in adoration of the Father, feet washed in company with the Son. Eugene Peterson, (2006) Eat this Book.

Here are a few suggestions for those of you who would like to study the scriptures on your own.

Step one

1. Prayer. We have permission to ask God to give us wisdom and understanding as we read
2. Read through the book or passage without stopping
3. When you finish reading ask yourself the following questions.
 - At this point what does the message seem to be?
 - List any difficulties you have with the passage. Are there any statements you do not understand? Is there any problem or question you would like to study further?

Step two

When studying a book of the Bible or a passage it is very important to ask yourself why it was written, who wrote it, and to whom it was written. It may be helpful to refer to supplementary resources.

- Who is the author? What do we learn about him?
- What is the author's purpose in writing
- Who are the recipients? Where are they? What are their circumstances?
- Where is the setting?
- When was this written/ what was life like for the recipients? What is happening? What had they experienced?

There are thousands of web based resources to help study the Bible on your own but you may find it helpful to begin with one of these: <http://studylight.org/> or <http://www.crosswalk.com/>

Step three

Ask yourself what you learn about God (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) from this passage.

Step four

How has God spoken to you personally as you read through the passage or book?

- What eternal principles do you see in this passage?
- What is the most interesting thing you discovered today?
- What did you learn today you did not know before?
- How do these teachings apply to you personally?
- Why does God want this passage in the Bible?
- What specifically are you going to do about them?

*Always, the purpose of such understanding is not that we will become proficient in our Bible knowledge. Rather, it is that we will be enabled to LIVE out of this "life that is life indeed" into ongoing discipleship to Jesus in such a way that our hearts and minds are PROGRESSIVELY transformed into the VERY nature of the heart and mind of God (1 Tim. 6:19).
