

Counsellor Educator / Kaiako

School of Social Practice

(Tauranga-based, full-time or part-time job share)

If you can contribute to the teaching of students in BTI's Bachelor of Counselling, then please apply to become a permanent member of staff starting in January 2026. You will teach onsite and online as well as support students pastorally and on practicum.

BTI is a Christ-focused tertiary institution committed to:

- relational
- collaborative
- strength-based and
- inclusive practices, valuing manaakitanga and whanaungatanga.

BTI is set within beautiful grounds in the sunny Bay of Plenty. We are an NZQA Category One Private Training Provider delivering biblically informed professional preparation qualifications.

The School of Practice is a highly supportive team offering a transformative teaching approach shaping the next generation of counsellors. We seek an Educator who is:

- aligned with BTI's mission and values
- dedicated to vibrant faith-informed professional practice
- transformational in onsite and distance teaching
- experienced and accredited in the counselling profession
- experienced in tertiary teaching and committed to scholarship
- committed to facilitating the development of the next generation of counselling practitioners
- committed to Te Tiriti o Waitangi and what it means for an integrated bi-cultural and inclusive professional practice
- holds or is working towards a post-graduate qualification in counselling.

Applications close at 5:00pm, Monday, 20th October 2025 and should include a CV and covering letter.

Please apply via the SEEK website (a copy of the Job Description is available at <https://bti.ac.nz/about-us/employment/>)

For enquiries regarding the role, email the Kaiarorangi Principal, Dr James Arkwright, c/- p.pratapsingh@bti.ac.nz