

EVERYDAY
Heroism

Recognising Growth and
Transformation in Community

2023
CONFERENCE

Conference Booklet

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
8:30 am	Welcome and Introductions	Meet at reception: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Introduction to kaikaranga and support team ◦ Explain powhiri process (tikanga me ōna kawa) 	Reception - BTI
9:00 am	Powhiri	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Whaikorero (Tauha) ◦ Karanga (Gayle) ◦ Waiata - Whakataka te Hau on behalf of the manuhiri 	Te Kohao - BTI
	Reply	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Waiata (Te Aroha)
	Closing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Whaikorero (Mikaere) ◦ Waiata (He Honore) ◦ Invitation to hariru ◦ Explanation of powhiri process (Mikaere) ◦ Greeting by Te Taiurungi – closing karakia ◦ Invitation to morning tea.
9:30 am	Morning tea		Wharekai - BTI
10:00 am	Mihi Timatanga Introduction	Conference Opening with Peter Bray	Rm 3201
10:15 am	Keynote	Scott Allison Definitions and descriptions of Heroism	Rm 3201
Break
11.00 am	Theme One: Everyday Heroism	1. Elizabeth Gritter Heroes of the Memphis, Tennessee, Civil Rights Movement	Rm 3201
	Chair: Peter Bray	2. John Price The Forgotten Heroes of Postman’s Park
	Discussion	3. Irina Trotsuk & Mariya Subbotina Types of everyday heroism (based on the sociological survey)
12:15 pm	Lunch		Wharekai - BTI
1:15pm	Theme Two: Heroism in Communities	4. Carol Ryff Everyday heroism in the face of inequality and injustice: Probing sources	Rm 3201

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
	Chair: James Arkwright	5. Elena Bergia Heroes, not winners. Striving, 'failing,' and persevering in the worldview of Northern Irish republicanism
	Discussion	6. Tom Voigt The Struggle of Heroic Action: Aftermath of Heroism
		7. Joanna Pascoe Future Library in Oslo: A line of flight towards a world yet to come.
Break
3.00 pm	Theme Three: Hero Archetypes in Popular Culture	8. Annabelle Nelson The hero-heroine archetype: finding clarity to navigate life	Rm 3201
	Chair: Theresa A. Thorkildsen	9. Igor Prusa Introduction to Antiheroism
	Discussion	10. Jasmyn Connell Shaping heroism through participatory online fan cultures: an analysis of video Game heroes as nonhuman personas
		11. Sophia Staite The Everyday Heroism of Kamen Rider: Japanese Children's Superheroes, Bridging the Fantastic and the Mundane
4.30 pm	Break
5:00 pm	Bus to Wairoa Marae	Powhiri - All	Wairoa Marae
5.30 pm	Wharekai – Wairoa Marae	Hakari at Wairoa Marae - All	Wharekai
7.00 pm	Wharenui	Korero - "The Heroism of Ngā Wāhine Māori" With Whaea Ngaronoa	Wharenui
8.00 pm	End visit – Return to BTI	Down time

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
9.00 am	Theme Four: Heroism, growth and transformation	12. James Arkwright Living with Quadriplegia: The daily challenge of achieving function results in (almost) invisible personal and professional development	Rm 3201
	Chair: Annabelle Nelson	13. Patrick Jones Mindfulness, nondual well-being, and heroism – enlightened heroes
	Discussion	14. Peter Bray Adopting a heroic persona in order to manage a personally tragic event
10.15 am	Morning tea
11.00 am	Theme Five: Heroism and change	15. Mark Gudgel Shades of Gray: Genocide, heroism, and the complications of perspective
	Chair: Kyle Fruh	16. Ekaterina Kolpinskaya & Natalya Danilova Heroes as harbingers of social change: gender, race and hero choice in the United States and Britain
	Discussion	17. Alaster Gibson Michael Servetus, a 16th Century physician, theologian, and martyr
		18. Melissa Gould & Angelique Nairn Childhood (Super) Heroes: Media representations of (super)heroes and the implications to gender norms
12.30 pm	Lunch
1.45 pm	Theme Six: Heroism research	19. Sacha Rombouts Where art meets science: the creation of evidence-based superheroes to grow children’s psychological flexibility.
	Chair: Scott Allison

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
		20. Brian Riches How the Intended Heroic Behavior Scale can advance Heroism research 21. Donna Schuman, with Dayton Williams & Andrew Picart A qualitative investigation of turning points as catalysts for posttraumatic growth and transformation in U.S. veterans 22. Michael Condren Where are they now? Post-heroic life trajectories of social heroes
Break
3.15 pm	Theme Seven: The Hero, Leadership and Morality Chair: Carol Ryff Discussion	23. Ensar Acem with Onurcan Yilmaz, Burak Doğruyol & Ozan Isler Heroism as moral intuition and its relation to social behavior 24. Theresa Thorkildsen Conceptions of heroic leadership in civil society among students attending an urban university 25. Kyle Fruh Moral Heroism without Virtue 26. J. N. “Nick” Nielsen Heroic virtues in space exploration: Supererogation in outer space
4.45 pm	Free Time

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
8.30 am	Theme Eight: Heroism, Sustainability and the Planet Chair: Lindsay Fish Discussion	27. Mark Gudgel Rescuing the future of the wine industry from global climate change 28. Katarzyna Więckowska Heroes of the Anthropocene: Acting for more-than-human communities 29. Grażina Kristina Sviderskyte Fairy Creek blockades: Sustainability heroism battles and frontiers on Vancouver Island 30. Jari Käkälä Everyday heroism and the journey of the community in The Long Way to a Small, Angry Planet by Becky Chambers
Morning tea
10.00 am	Theme Nine: “Thinking About” the Heroic Chair: Patrick Jones Discussion	31. Lindsay Fish & Therese Eberhard A heroic journey into the classroom: The everyday work of neurodiverse teachers. 32. Martin Brick In the shadow of Rain Man: Some problems with the autistic hero 33. Kevin Moloney Heroic Photography
Break
11.15 am	Theme Ten: Presenting the Hero – in Film, Art, and Literature Chair: Sacha Rombouts	34. Hannah Sophie Schiffner Superhero uniforms: Heroic identity in a post-heroic society 35. Ann Hall Testing capitalism’s mettle: Alfred Hitchcock’s everyday heroes in North by Northwest (1959)

TIME	ACTIVITY	SPEAKER(S)	Venue
	Discussion	36. Olga Grădinaru The Young Guard's Heroism reflected in literature and films 37. Justin Wigard 'The Honker That Would Not Die!': Displacement, pulp heroism, and indigenous futurisms in Turok, Son of Stone.
12.45 am	Lunch
1.45 pm	Theme Eleven: Where to From Here? Chair: Peter Bray Discussion	38. Jia Rui Bai Heroism in true love: the annihilation of pain and the social revolution of love 39. Jeremy Sherman Evil posing as heroic 40. Clark Baxter The hero and the restoration of a healthy civic life	Rm 3201
		Break
3.00 pm	Concluding Remarks & Poroporoaki	Scott Allison, Peter Bray and Tauha Te Kani	Te Kohao
3.45 pm		Conference officially ends Informal post-conference meal (TBA)

heroismscience2023@bti.ac.nz

https://bti.ac.nz/everyday_heroism_conference_2023

EVERYDAY
Heroism

Recognising Growth and
Transformation in Community

2023
CONFERENCE